

2019
Milan, Italy
Food

The leading company in the food industry for the production of creams. Tempco's supplies are mainly concentrated in the field of heat exchange. Brazed and inspectable plate heat exchangers, multi-section pasteurisation units, refrigeration units complete with storage and pumping systems. All this is always under the banner of maximum customisation, in an application area that is very strict and requires very high quality standards.