

2019 Lecco, Italy Food

A historic chocolate and confectionery company in the province of Lecco.

Over the years, we have provided various heat exchange solutions, both for production processes, for the temperature control of cocoa butter and technical fluids, and in the area of air cooling/heating of technological installations.

Here too, the design of special installations involves our technical department in the choices, with customised studies based on customer requirements.